Hash Trash

Hare: Swollen Colon

Location: Sewroo Products, 3/50A Johnson Street, Southport.

Sir Ferrett and myself arrived in the car park behind Swollen's place of work to find a large group of hashers milling around. Kwakka and Hard On were handling the sign on whilst Swollen Colon was giving out samples of a brew in cups and asking hashers to write down what they thought it was. Missing Link was back for his third run in a row and Poxy made a return.

At 6pm GM Commander Head called the pack to order and Swollen proceeded to give a long rambling explanation of the run/walk. He estimated that both the walkers and runners would spend an hour out on trail and also reminded the pack that there would be a drink stop. The walk and the run both headed out of the car park on to Johnson Street before the run/walk split. The walkers turned left at the roundabout onto George Street, turning right into North Street, left into High Street before crossing the Gold Coast highway at the lights. From there it was south along the pathway, passing the biggest hash arrow I've seen, to the lights at the Nind Street/GC Highway intersection. From there the trail crossed over into Nind Street and on to the drink stop near the Frizelle Wholesale car yard. Swollen then produced another brew and invited hashers to guess what it was. General consensus at the time was that it was some sort of rum with coke. After the drink stop the walkers abandoned the rest of the walk and headed back home. The runners had headed off towards the Equestrian Park and the Southport cemetery and came across a water fountain which had a chalk marked 'drink stop' near it. Thinking there was no actual drink stop, and after losing trail, the runners headed for home but not before Botcho and Fanny Charmer had run a few extra blocks in a vain attempt to find more arrows. By the time the walkers got back home the runners were already there. Mad Mike measured the walk at 3.06km and Botcho had the part of the run that they found at ~4km.

Back at the run site, a dish of peanuts was on offer as the pack observed the efforts of Cum Smoke and Fanny Charmer to remove a half-burnt pallet from underneath the pots of cooked vegetables. SPV proceeded to carve up the roast beef and KB, who had arrived late, assisted Swollen's better half to make the gravy to go with the roast. Dinner consisted of roast beef and gravy, potatoes, beans, peas and carrots. A tray of bread rolls made an appearance a little bit later. Dessert was an assortment of mini muffins.

GM Commander Head called the pack to order for the and called in Poxy as a returning runner. S Bends was next in for nearly getting the GM run over crossing the road. Botcho was next in for calling Hal AI a returning runner and Fuck All for being last to pay.

Fanny Charmer said the trail was poorly marked with the smallest arrows that he's seen which caused the pack to get lost and gave it 4.5/10.

The walk was better marked, had a drink stop and received an 8/10.

VD gave the nosh report and gave it 8/10. The assistance of KB and SPV with portion control was noted.

The first of the fireworks for the night was lit by Cum Smoke. Dr Death gave a note and Swollen got his deserved down down.

Fanny Charmer was called in for serious abuse of privilege for helping himself to the roast beef before the rest of the pack. Cum Smoke was called in as it was his 300th run and immediately asked where his beret was, to which the GM replied it was in hand.

The GM then asked who was missing a set of keys. Missing Link realised they were his and Blue Card was accused of dislodging them when he stole his chair.

The GM then handed the circle over to the RA.

RA Shat called Hard On into the circle. Evidently Hard On had been playing a round of golf where he met with a lovely lady. Hard On went home with the lady where she proceeded to give him a BJ. This happened on several occasions. Hard On wanted something more meaningful in the relationship but she said I can't. He sought advice from the RA on why she wouldn't come home with him in his usual meeting place of the men's toilets in Southport. One day the lady could take no more and announced "I'm a homosexual transvestite". Hard On was pissed off because all this time 'she' had played off the Ladies tee.

Magician and VD were called to the circle. Evidently there was a lovely young 17yo girl wearing a G-string bikini when VD was going for a walk with his wife down Burleigh way. Magician who's also out for a walk calls VD over and he's foaming at the mouth in the direction of VD's wife whilst still looking at the girl. VD's wife works out what's going on and the next time VD is going for a walk down Burleigh way, it will be without his wife. Blue Card gave a note and it's a down down for Magician and VD.

The RA handed the circle back to the GM.

Prick of the Week

To the strains of the Addams Family theme the GM called for the Prick of the Week to come forward. STD, the current holder, stepped up and looked around the circle for candidates.

Magician was called in to the circle and asked about his new haircut which he had proudly displayed to fellow hashers on Friday and boasted that he'd paid a mere $10 for it. When it was asked what was the inspiration for the haircut, a photo of a parrot was produced and the resemblance was obvious.

And the winner is Magician.

The GM asked Rug, our resident security expert, for an update. Rug replied that the Taliban Hash had reformed but was looking for a new leader to replace Osama Bin Laden (Hash Name - Blow Job). On Sec Slug then asked Rug why he was getting fake parcel delivery texts every day as it was pissing him off.

S Bends had a question for Hard On about the story of an avid golfing mate of his who's dying. He asks his wife if she's ever been unfaithful.

She's replies "Do you remember when you needed that operation and the doctor said we couldn't afford it, well I had a chat with the Doctor".

"That's ok" he says.

"Were there any more occasions" he asks. She replies "Do you remember when we couldn't get the kids in to the private school, well I had a chat with the Bursar."

"That's ok" he says.

"Were there any more occasions" he asks. She replies "Do you remember when we needed a bank loan for the house, well I had a chat with the Banker."

"Is that it" he says. She replies "Do you remember when you really wanted to join the golf club and you needed 35 votes".

Swollen then produced the two bottles of spirits that he used to produce his concoctions. The first was a bottle of 12yo Canadian Club whiskey. Canadian Club 12yo is based on corn and rye, with helpings of rye and barley malt. It is then aged in re-charred oak barrels. Technically it is not a bourbon as it's not made in Kentucky which is the same for Jack Daniels which is made in Tennessee.

The second was a bottle of Southern Comfort. Southern Comfort is an American fruit-favoured whiskey with fruit and spice accents originally created by bartender Martin Wilkes Heron in New Orleans. A good quality bourbon was used as the base spirit.

Fanny Charmer had guessed the second as Southern Comfort and coke and Missing Link was closest to the first.

The GM then called on Swollen to close the circle.

Hash Jokes:

In keeping with the golf theme jokes:

The Pope met with the College of Cardinals to discuss a proposal from Shimon Peres, the former leader of Israel. "Your holiness," said one of the Cardinals, "Mr Peres want to determine whether Jews or Catholics are superior, by challenging you to a golf match." The Pope was greatly disturbed as he had never held a golf club in his life.

"Not to worry," said the Cardinal, "we'll call America and talk to Jack Nicklaus. We'll make him a Cardinal, he can play Shimon Peres... We can't lose!"

Everyone agreed this was a good idea. The call was made and, of course, Jack was honoured to play.

The day after the match, Nicklaus reported to the Vatican to inform the Pope of his success in the match. "I came second, your holiness," said Nicklaus.

"Second.?!!" exclaimed the surprised Pope. "You came in second to Shimon Peres?!!"

"No," said Nicklaus, "second to Rabbi Woods."
