

GCH3 Run #2272 11/10/21

Hash Trash

Hare: Rug

Venue: Nolan Park, Sidney Nolan Drive, Coombabah

After an uneventful drive, Sir Ferrett and I arrived at Nolan Park, a new hash venue in Coombabah. The sky was looking threatening and the rain would come later on in the night. Bent Banana arrived with the hash trailer and Sir Jo assisted him to negotiate the gap in the fence to bring the trailer up to the shelter in the park.

In the GM's absence, Shat called the circle to order and Rug gave the instructions for the run/walk. We were advised to ignore the tape blocking access to various paths as this had been put up to aid in the recent bushfire reduction burns. The trail was marked with shredded paper which would prove problematic due to the windy conditions. The walkers and runners headed off into the Coombabah Wetlands Conservation Area. After the runners/walkers split just over a boardwalk, the walkers completed a large loop before some of us missed the on home and back tracked over part of the out trail. Fortunately using my MapMyRun App we managed to find our way home via Park Ridge Road, before turning down Sidney Nolan Drive and back to the start. The runners who had headed straight on after the boardwalk negotiated a couple of four-way checks before crossing over into a more familiar section of park and working their way back home. The run was about 80% bush and Brewtus measured it at 6.7km. The walk without the extra loop was just under 3km, with the loop I managed 3.96 km with Sir Rabbitt and Hal AI in tow and Mad Mike 4.36km.

Back at the venue, there were Peroni birthday beers supplied by Poxy. The showers started and would continue for the rest of the night. Tonight's food theme was Asian Fusion. A couple of woks were fired up and KB, Cum Smoke and Fanny Charmer started to prepare a noodle-based dish with Hard On supervising. A Chinese hot and sour soup was served up as an entrée and a Singapore chicken noodle dish as mains. The noodles were popular with several hashers including Weekly and S Bends going back for seconds (thirds?). Dessert would be Chinese toffee apple fritters coated with sesame seeds and served with ice cream.

RA Shat, also acting as stand in GM for the night, called for a circle to form.

Weekly gave the nosh report and rated it 8/10. Now Loved gave the yet unseen dessert an 8/10.

Shat then asked Rug about the run. He commented that he had neglected to mention that two blobs of shredded paper signified a check. He also noted the assistance of KB, Cumsmoke and Fanny Charmer ably supervised by Hard On with kitchen duties. Several walkers managed to miss the 'on home' and Circumference noted that shredded paper blows away in windy conditions.

Returning runner Swollen Colon was called into the circle and Shat noted he was still looking for an altar boy. Swollen has been in South Australia and ran with Adelaide Hash whilst he was there.

Charges from the circle

Circumference charged Hal AI. Where was he last Saturday at 1.20pm, at home betting on the races? His namesake 'Hilal' won race number four, the Heineken 3 Stan Fox Stakes.

Weekly was charged for getting lost on trail by Sir Ferrett however the truth was he had started out a bit hard and needed to rest a bit on the way home.

Hash Jokes

A couple are having sex. He notices that before sex she was very thorough in washing her hands. He asks "Are you a Doctor?" "Yes", she says, "How did you know?" "It was the way you washed your hands" he replies. "Can you guess what my profession is?", he asks. "You're an anesthetist", she replies. "Why you're correct, how did you know?", he says. "I didn't feel a thing", she replies.

Sir Ferrett

I came out of a chip shop with a meat/potato pie, large chips, mushy peas and a jumbo sausage. A poor homeless man, sitting there, said, "I've not eaten for two days". I told him, "I wish I had your will power."

I took my biology exam last Friday. I was asked to name two things commonly found in cells. Apparently "young blacks" and "Romanian gypsies" were not the correct answers.

A fat girl took a while to serve me in McDonalds at lunch time today. She said "sorry about the wait." I said, "Don't worry dear. You might lose it eventually."

"Snow in the forecast" the TV weather girl said, she was expecting 8 inches tonight. I thought to myself, "Fat chance with a face like that."

Poxy

"Don't buy Velcro any more, it's a rip off."

Birthday boy Poxy was called in for a down down.

Kwakka announced that due to the Hash Cash issue it was a 'You Owe Me Night' not an 'I Owe You Night.'

Prick of the Week

Current Prick of the Week Fuller Shit was called in. Fuller Shit had his eye on several hashers who he accused of leading Weekly astray on trail.

Then there was the Hash Cash F..k Up with Jigsaw's name being mentioned. Held over until next week.

Swollen Colon closed the circle.
