We are back again in Jackie Trad's territory, West End but at a new trendy joint – The one and only Gunshot Café. The vibe is old brick walls, with great atmosphere. It has been well known for years – pic attached

When – Thursday January 21st. at 12.00 noon for 12.30 pm.

Where – The Gunshot Café 53 Mollison St West End - 800 metres walk from South Brisbane Station.

Food – sort of modern Australian -

How Much – Average about $23 per plate with all the sides included

Grog – BYO wine only - $3 per head corkage – beers available about $9 per stubby

Bottle shop – at the Hotel West End (formerly Melbourne) 30 metres away

Format – the usual Hash disorganised stuff

Cleansing ale after – Choice of several watering holes between the restaurant and the rail station

RSVP by Sunday January 17th. To Brengun – Lunch Master – we have a room for about 30 but note there may be a limit on seats due to room size.

Special information for GCHHH guys.
