

Are youse after a good grill or roast in salubrious settings??
Well this lunch is for youse

The famous RRR Lunch

(Retirees Rong Runch)

Motto – let us eat steak not cake

(Copyright held by Marie Antoinette)

This time we are at a carnivore joint in trendy Boundary Street West End

When – Friday April 12th. (the week before Easter). at 12.00 noon for 12.30 pm.

Where West End Charcoal – corner of Boundary and Russell West End – 900 metres walk from south Brisbane Station

Food – Your last chance for a Friday lunch on meat before going vegan or fish for Easter

Set up – Two tables outside on street under the big fig tree

How Much – Average about $20 per plate with charcoal grilled meat and salad/chips or other stuff on the side

Grog – BYO wine and beer, the Boundary Hotel bottle shop is directly opposite, so no need to carry grog.

Corkage – best of all it is free !!! wine and beer, how good is that !!!!!

Format – the usual Hash disorganised stuff

Special guests yes ! We have invited the Gold Coast guys to be there–

What else – We had an RRR here about two years back and Hashmen were well satisfied with the food and value for money. The situation provides for eyeballing a passing parade of all sorts of our eclectic population

Cleansing ale after – Choice of several watering holes between the restaurant and the rail station

RSVP by Tuesday April 9th. To Brengun – Lunch Master

Special information for GCHHH guys.

Get off at South Brisbane, about 50 minutes from Helensvale. Walk 900 metres to the joint

See map attached and photos of the restaurant
