

Run Report
Joint Run 30th September 2019
Norfolk Tavern, Ormeau
Sir Slab & Others

This is Sir Slab

These are some happy Runners

The story

If all else fails - RTFC or, Read The Farking Circular.

However, I knew better and took the Ormeau Exit 54. Others who read the the run directions would have taken Exit 45. No problem, just a tour of the back blocks of the suburb for 20 minutes, arriving at Norfolk Tavern from the west rather than east.

I was then instructed to order food immediately. Big Mistake! I could have been served 30 minutes earlier. But then it is The Hash, things happen.

After all that I moved off with BRENGUN, recovering from a stint in GCUH after a tumble from his bike, or maybe SHAT'S bike? What shape is it in SHAT? We strolled up Pascoe Road to meet SIR RABBIT and FOXTROT who warned us to quickly retreat or we may never return. I was happy with that but the injured BRENGUN said no, we should continue. Next we were on a path which took us like lemmings over a cliff. Down a slippery slope and almost into a creek hidden at the bottom under roots - tree roots. We finally extricated ourselves from this, BRENGUN had forgotten his light but ripped mine from my grasp leaving me floundering in the mire. In time we got through to a grassy path which took us back to Halfway Drive. From there with help from Google we struggled back to the pub exhausted and fell into the bar for a cool drink.

A little later a call to THE CIRCLE moved most in that direction.

Later again in came our Great Leader GM ICEMAN, damaged, almost beyond repair.

Dinner was eventually served with military precision and supervised and directed by BH3. Food was excellent, most taking advantage of $14 Pensioner Prices.

Altogether a good night well organised by SLAB, SHAT and a large cast from BH3

The shirt has a
"This shirt is a sign that says:

conversation starter"

BH3 are also inviting us to a Pub Crawl so we must have made an impression.
Just show up @ 10am for a great day!!

Need to bring Seniors Go Card.

No train travel planned as not free travel.

Junior members of the Brisbane Hash Harriers are invited to attend, however:

- They will need to pay for their own travel
- Will need to put up with every old fart gloating that they are traveling for free.
