

GC HHH Run #2203, 20 January 2020

... An Unbiased Report by Shat, The Hare

The Gold Coast has many man-made islands created from land reclamation, however Chevron Island (previously known as Goat Island) already existed. In the 1950s the shape and height of the island were added to with sand fill and also by detaching the island from where HOTA now exists.

Chevron Island today is the home of the gentry of the Gold Coast – residents include fine gentlemen the likes of the Hon. Wayne Nolan, the famous Peter Foster Esq. and Sir John Quayle. Nearby, just across the river, lies the hidden jewel of Budds Beach and here reside community icons including the Hon. Ross Harding.

The Run

Oh what a night. 39 Hashers turned up at the ShatHouse on a warm and uncertain weather night. Due to the wet track and under the threat of more rain, the trail was set using marked maps. The running and walking packs set off on separate trails, the runners tracking west and the walkers heading north – some walkers followed the marked map while others walked around the island.

Asked to Rate the Run, the crowd went wild

Unbelievable scenes in the circle when asked to rate the run ... the ecstatic Hashers went wild, clapping, cheering, throwing caps in the air. The Hare, Shat, was so pleased and proud.

Swindler & Sir AH

The Walk also drew an enthusiastic response from the gathered Hashers. “Never in all my years of Hashing have I enjoyed a walk so much”, said Sir AH. Weekly added just a one-word comment: “Fantastic”!!.

The Food

Entrée: Little Boys

Main: Beef & Mango Stir Fry w Rice

Desert: Pav w Ice Cream

Once again, those two Masterchefs Sir Prince and Kitchen Bitch weaved their culinary magic to produce an outstanding meal. Those two guys never fail to deliver. Well done. Yum. Everyone went home having eaten too much ... that says it all!!

The Circle

The neighbours, I think, were most impressed with the not so quiet circle which spilt out to the road. Hmmmmmm. A brief summary:-

Truck Tyre awarded a Down-Down for destroying Council security barriers to run over the not-yet-open Green Bridge ... clearly a criminal offence. Jail time looms.

- A sad farewell to Theis, who regrettably has been deported back to Germany

- Welcome to visitor Max, friend of Peppi

*Hashy Birthday to Shat & Slug

Down Down awarded to Hard On for falling asleep on a tram after travelling just two stops. Planed to get off at Darcy Arms, woke up at Broadbeach.
