“The Year That Was”

Chapter Three

AUSSIE'S CENTRE FOLD

AUSSIE'S CENTRE FOLD

As an airplane is about to crash, a female passenger jumps up frantically and announces, “If I’m going to die, I want to feel like a woman.”

She removes all her clothing and asks, “is there someone on this plane who is man enough to make me feel like a woman?”

A man Stands up, removes his shirt and says.

“Here, iron this!”

A guy goes up to a girl in a bar and says,

“I want to play magic” she says

“What’s that”

“We go to my house and have sex and then you disappear”

HASH PIZZA AFTERNOON

The “Shat Party” organised a fun day of good company, fine wine, music and Gourmet Pizzas.

Forty Hashers attended and ate their way through 15 kilograms of pizza dough, that's more than 70 pizzas.

Crocodile played mother and served cups of coffee before telling everyone to bugger off.

It must have been thirsty work because the recycling bin was overflowing.

SPLINTER HASH

What a great fun year we have had at Splinter Hash. Dining at fine restaurants, enjoying fine wine and having the good company of our Hashing Mates.

Caustic Crusader won the rain soaked Golf Day at Botcho's Helensvale course. A gourmet lunch followed the golf.

Montana's assistance was much appreciated by all.

SPLINTER HASH EYE CANDY

A Group of Splinter Hashers all around age 50, discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Flames Gourmet Grill because the waitresses there were gorgeous, with tight skirts, great eye candy and the Lansdowne Road Irish Pub was next door.

Ten years later, in their 60's, the Splinter Hashers once again discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Flames Gourmet Grill because the steaks and service was great and the eye candy was exceptional.

Ten years later, in their 70's, the Splinter Hashers again discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Flames Gourmet Grill because they could dine in peace and quiet and the restaurant had a beautiful view of the passing eye candy.

Ten years later, in their 80's, the Splinter Hashers discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Flames Gourmet Grill because the restaurant was wheelchair accessible and had a disabled toilet on the same level and great eye candy.

Ten years later, in their 90's, the Splinter Hashers discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Flames Gourmet Grill because they had never been there before.

My girlfriend just caught me blow drying my penis and asked what was I doing. Apparently, "heating your dinner" was not the right answer.

A husband walks into the bedroom holding two aspirin and a glass of water. His wife asks, "What's that for?"

"It's for your headache."

"I don't have a headache."

He replies, "Gotcha!"

GOLD COAST HASH 1800TH RUN

Run: 1800

Date: Monday 30th April 2012

Hare: Hierarchy 1800th Special Event

Venue: Budd's Beach & Surfers

Runners: 42

What makes a person want to get involved in these things? I suppose the fact we had no choice in the matter would be a good place to start. I mean, let's start with standing in Woollies for 30 minutes watching and waiting for 22 chooks to get drawn and quartered.

This was then followed by the episode of dragging an electronically (wheels) locked shopping trolley loaded with the above mentioned chooks and 3 kilos of coleslaw down the Gold Coast Highway. Then we have the emergency run to Aldi to get the dessert ice creams and extra booze. But I guess, in the end, nothing is better than seeing a meticulously planned event fall into place!

Such is the happenings at the Hierarchy's 1800th run. The event which was supposed to begin at 6pm saw most arriving early at 5:30pm to Budd's Beach, opposite the GM's palatial Beach Retreat. The 42 soles arrived to collect their signature bright red vests before tucking into the fine array of beers including birthday drinks provided by yours truly and Testicles ...

GOLD COAST HASH 1800TH RUN

The “A to B” 1800th run was soon underway with the trolley boys leading the way. It didn't take long for the casual pack to stretch out as we approached Chevron island Bridge. The pack regrouped as the trail then headed over the lights and towards the Titanium Bar, a possible drink stop venue many thought.

No, as the meandering and now confused pack searched for more signs. Despite my calls (totally ignored) the pack continued south along the Highway but was soon suckered into the well construed false trail. All apart from Show Pony and a few others who had picked up on some early Intel on where we might be heading, on a cruise. Finally after some hurried cries of “On Back” the pack arrived at the docks.

The two hour cruise soon wound to a conclusion and the pack wandered off into the night with some wisely departing for home and a few usual suspects not so wise, more to report at a later date no doubt.

I don't think it has been since the Nash Hash in '99 that we have attempted a boat trip so many thanks to Shat and fellow Hierarchy helpers for making the evening happen.

Thanks to all for participating in another fun event and thanks to our “outstanding” helpers and staff on the night for serving up a great 1800th Run.
