

Words of Wisdom by Swindler

Flasher on the Ice

decision was that any trail (if there really was one) had been totally obliterated by the rain.

Our Dearly NOW LOVED GM was in shock at this debacle but his anointed RA MISCARRIAGE in his usual "quick as a flash style" declared this was now a LIVE HARE Run ,follow ME and took off up with the speed of a startled bullant up a nearby grass alleyway ..at last some real action.

Whatever happened to this Live Hare remains a mystery because with in 30 minutes all were safely tucked away in the bowels of the Highland Park Cellar out of the inclement weather.

A ..unn for the True Believers

The faithful followers of FLASHER congregated in the Highland Park shopping centre car park(such an original venue should have immediately given the "True Believers " an indication of the future events that would follow). Hare FLASHER told the excited group to head west to find the trail.... "well marked with chalk ,flower ,toilet paper and confetti.". He had diligently set the trail early in the day forgetting that a torrential downpour was planned for early afternoon...say no more..

Flower ,chalk and water just don't go with rain!!! Poor FLASHER..he tries so hard to do everything right!!

The Runners raced excitedly ahead like there was no tomorrow to find the "chalk trail". As usual the walkers like a methodical group of old bulls slowly moved forward with precision and dedication. Led by SLUG with the FLASHER map in hand (SLUG always has something in his hand!!) the walkers pace immediately quickened as they spotted some young heifers in the distance.

As the walkers rounded the first bend they were confronted by a very agitated and exited group of aging men jumping around of fire-flies racing in every direction to trying to find the trail. It was then as the Runners and Walkers bonded in deep discussion that the

The ..unn and walk

The first group of dedicated Walkers returned to find SHAT , VD & KWAKKA (obviously Hash attendees only for the food and booze and not the exercise) sitting up at the bar and already on the Turps (buying drinks at inflated hotel prices ..no wonder the Booze Master is going broke). By the way all prices now $3 before Booze Master is forced to close down.

JIGSAW , SIR SLAB ,SIR AH and Yours Truly were next at the bar quickly followed by the GM and SIR RABBIT.

CAUSTIC CRUSADER arrived still resplendent in the Hair Net thoughtfully supplied by FLASHER so he would not have a "BAD HAIR NIGHT "

RECTUM arrived with a Monkey on his back..no doubt trying to gain extra sympathy

Special points of interest:

a Run that was in fact a ..unn

- Extraordinary range of food provided by FLASHER
- SHAT illegally providing Medical advice tor BLUE CARD about his coming procedure
- JIGSAW'S 21st century version of the POW creates interest in new technology
- CIRCUMFERENCE singing "why are we waiting "
- End of Rectangle..called by MISS-ING LINK as welcome relief

The ..unn and walkcontinued & The Nosh

BENT BANANA arrived sweating and puffing like he actually did run somewhere ?/ but where???

BOTCHO looked like he was ready to blow out a church full of candles (did he really run ??)

Other arrived in dribs and drabs ,CIRCUMFERENCE , SIR PRINCE & TRUCK TYRES all looking the part of professional Hash Men who has just completed a marathon effort ..what great actors they are !!

CSUSTIC CRUSADERS'S BAD HAIR DAY

FLASHER was able to offer an extraordinary range of Nosh Meals..In fact in his mind we are sure he believed he would be a serious contender for Nosh of the Year and the Run of the year.

What a dreamer.!!! no wonder the GM made him take the position of dishonor in the Rectangle on a plastic chair of ICE while he watch the current episode of Big Brother.

A lot of effort as usual by FLASHER that unfortunately for him all turned to Shi.. due to bad weather and pub food...did he really deserve POW.!!!

The Rectangle

How can so many years of Hash History be destroyed by one person. The GM called "Circle in 5 "then 15 minutes later all were assembled around him in a rectangle of tables and chairs as he called his Hash Cabinet team to order.

Does not our GM understand basic maths??...A Circle is not the same as a Rectangle.

JIGSAW showed amazing ingenuity with his high tech skills of upgrading the POW award to a now highly sought after trophy. (is he trying to out

The evening of high intensity sport and activities quickly came to an end as our beloved GM requested MISSING LINK to perform the most important duty of the Night.

tech BOTCHO??)

ICEMAN made a welcome re-appearance and quickly pretended that he came back to help Booze Master TRUCK TYRES.

Several DD were called for very spurious reason including:

- Looking though holes in the ladies toilet wall at Boonah. (name not disclosed to protect the guilty)
- CRAFT disease by someone I forget (I think ML)??

The RA stories about GOPHER and his friendly relationship with goats as well the Range Rover Car drivers and indiscriminate use of Vaseline on mufflers. certainly deserve accolades.

He seems very busy these days getting information surfing the Internet!!

Has he really got a Job??

- Television star not letting his partner have crack at a TV appearance.(Yes..F again)
- Snake catching advice by BB

End of Rectangle ..those important and welcome words from MISSING LINK
