

GCHHH Run 2231 Hare: Rug Grassy Park Hansford Road, Coombabah

~ 7 December 2020 ~

As previous Grassy Park runners know, armies of vicious mosquitos reside there. So, threatened by an approaching thunder storm, 28 lost souls turned up prepared with Aerogard for a mosquito fight; and a change of clothes ... thankfully, lots of lightening but little rain, and very few mossies.

A single trail from the park led along a bush track aside Coombabah creek, then split into a Runners' trail (6km) & a Walkers' trail (4km). Both trails were similar, continuing through bush then into parkland where they re-joined, and remarkably the runners & walkers came back together ... timed to perfection by experienced trail-setter Rug. The return trail ran along the familiar home path beside Coombabah Lake, & through suburban streets back to Grassy Park.

Initially, just eight runners set out. Along the way, Circumference & Fanny Charmer wisely decided to get with the strength and joined the walkers.

Run Report by Sir Borcho: Simply, a very good, well-marked run!!

Walk Report by Badger: Good run – easy to follow the trail, particularly as the Hare walked with us.

Hash Nosh

Main (& Entrée): A great Filipino meal - Philippine Bean Curd Noodles with Chicken & Vegetables. A big hit.

Desert: Minihot Esculenta (a root vegetable), or Cassava Cake as commonly known, & Ice Cream – a traditional Filipino dish.

Nosh Report by Sir Slab: Excellent!!!

The Circle [acting RA: Sir Prince]

- Visitors & Returning Runners: Dr Death & Big O ... welcome back!!
- Sir Botcho update on Rockhard who is deciding his next course of treatment ... best wishes to Rockhard from all.
- Hash Thanks to Truck Tyres & VD for their efforts in installing Solar Panels on the Hash Trailer.
- BHHH Over 60s Lunch attended by Circumference, Sir Botcho, Shat & Truck Tyres. BHHH applied to Brisbane City Council for assistance in arranging a gathering of Seniors aimed at alleviating stress in these Covid-pressured times ... The Council granted $231 which following the lunch was put to extremely good use on the bar of the Royal George.
- Following the Over 60s lunch, Truck Tyres was determined to leave early (which he didn't ... 'just one more beer') to fulfil duties as Thirsty Thursday's booze-master. Consequently, he was late and by the time he arrived with the drinks at 7.45pm, others had already bought alternative supplies. Ah well, he tried.
- Farewell to Big O who departs this week, heading back to the Philippines, Covid-stranded here since February.
- Prick of the Week: Miscarriage charged Big O with spying on him, evidenced by a video found on Big O's phone of an impossible huge, ginormous cock which clearly - as everyone would know - was the appendage of Miscarriage. However, because Big O is leaving, the award passed to a Big O look-alike ... Fanny Charmer [huh?]
